

Clark Griffin

Drawn to dance at the late age of 14, Clark quickly excelled at his passion and was selected as a National YoungArts Foundation Winner and Beach Blanket Babylon Scholarship Finalist. He has attended summer intensives at The Juilliard School, Nederlands Dans Theater, Hubbard Street Dance Chicago, Pacific Northwest Ballet and Ballet West. While representing his chapter as Mr. Dance of California 2013, he received recognition as a finalist and scholarship winner for Mister Dance of America 2014, as well as a semi-finalist winner at Youth America Grand Prix SF.

During high school, Clark performed with his school's dance group and co-taught boys classes at BADS. He is currently a choreographer and dancer for Princeton University Ballet and diSiac Dance Company, training in ballet, hip hop and contemporary. In addition to dancing in department programs and earning a ballet certificate at Princeton University ('18), Clark has performed in theater productions of Hero and Singin' in the Rain.
